Aggressive Panhandling Ordinance

Hampton officials have worked diligently to decrease panhandling throughout the city. The following is the city's Aggressive Panhandling Ordinance. Being found in violation of the code represents a misdemeanor charge. For a person to be charged it must occur in the presence of an officer or the victim or witness of such activity must seek a warrant or summons. Please contact the Hampton Police Division at 727-6111 if you witness aggressive panhandling.

Sec. 24-50. - Aggressive soliciting

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to solicit money or other things of value, or to solicit the sale or purchase of goods or services in an aggressive manner in any public area.

(b) For the purposes of this section the following words and phrases shall have the meanings ascribed to them below, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

Aggressive manner means and includes:

- (1) Intentionally or recklessly making any physical contact with or touching another person in the course of the solicitation, without the person's consent;
- (2) Approaching or following the person being solicited, if that conduct is:
 - (i) intended to or is likely to cause a reasonable person to fear imminent bodily harm or the commission of a criminal act upon property in the person's possession; or (ii) is intended to or is reasonably likely to intimidate the person being solicited into responding affirmatively to the solicitation;
- (3) Continuing to solicit the person being solicited after the person has made a negative response, if continuing the solicitation is:
 - (i) intended to or is likely to cause a reasonable person to fear imminent bodily harm or the commission of a criminal act upon property in the person's possession; or (ii) is intended to or is reasonably likely to intimidate the person being solicited into responding affirmatively to the solicitation;
- (4) Intentionally or recklessly blocking the safe or free passage of the person being solicited or requiring the person to take evasive action to avoid physical contact with the person making the solicitation; and
- (5) Intentionally or recklessly using obscene or abusive language or gestures:
 - (i) intended to or likely to cause a reasonable person to fear imminent bodily harm or the commission of a criminal act upon property in the person's possession; or (ii) words intended to or reasonably likely to intimidate the person into responding affirmatively to the solicitation. Public area means an area to which the public or a substantial group of persons has access, including, but not limited to: alleys, bridges, buildings, docks, wharfs, marinas, driveways, parking lots, parks, playgrounds, sidewalks, streets open to the general public, and the doorways and entrances to buildings, together with the grounds enclosing them.

Solicit means to request an immediate donation of money or other thing of value from another person, regardless of the solicitor's purpose or intended use of the money or other thing of value. A solicitation may take the form of, without limitation, the spoken, written or printed word, or by other means of communication including gesture.
